DAILY REPUBLICAN—1897.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 1902.

PRICE—ONE CENT.

THAT'S THE LEDGER.

The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage says—
"A newspaper whose columns overflow with the advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong in building up a town as newspapers well patronized, and this power should be appreciated."

SOMETHING NEW.
A showman to the jungle went
And caught a fierce young gnu.
Said he: "I'll teach him to perform.
And sell him to the Zoo."
This man was very much surprised,
And quite delighted, too.
For, lo! each quick and sly trick
The new gnu knew.

Confederate Decoration

TWO ELOQUENT ADDRESSES

Rev. R. E. Moss and Col. Breckinridge the Speakers.

PRESENTING THE CROSS OF HONOR.

Yesterday was the birthday of Jefferson Davis and Confederate Memorial Day.

Under the auspices of Basil Duke Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, the day was observed in a marked manner in this city, the exercises taking on wider scope than ever before.

In the forenoon the graves of Confederate dead in our Cemetery were strewn with the choicest flowers, after which the Rev. R. E. Moss, speaking from the Kenton Mound, delivered a most beautiful address, reciting the glorious deeds of the Southern soldier and praising the virtues of his Federal adversary.

Below is a list of the Confederate dead whose graves were decorated:

Lieutenant Frank Atkinson.
Lieutenant Thaddeus Jack.
Lieutenant Henry Pelham.
Lieutenant Lucien Hall.
Thomas M. Hunt.
C. P. Rosser.
George Nelson.
Joseph Alexander.
Phares Weis.
Andrew T. Cox.
William W. Weedon.
Robert Fowler.
Reuben King.
Harry Devin.
William Porter.
Robert Martin.
Albert Cox.
Joseph H. Cox.
Robert Downing.
— Boughner.
Edward Richeson.
Wag Richeson.

Following this was the eloquent address by Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge at Floral Hall on the Fairgrounds.

The exercises here opened with the singing of "My Old Kentucky Home," after which the Rev. Dr. J. C. Molloy offered prayer.

Being presented by the Hon. Walter Matthews, Colonel Breckinridge spoke for over an hour, eulogizing the character of Jefferson Davis and reviewing the great work that fell upon him in the effort to establish the Southern Confederacy.

The speaker defended those Kentuckians who went to the Confederate Army, as they were actuated by the strongest sense of duty to their Southern kinspeople. As for himself, he fought his best, and when he gave up, he gave up his best. He had no apology to offer for his share in the unequal contest, but was proud to say that he had been a Confederate soldier, and was proud also to say that he was now an American citizen.

Colonel Breckinridge's eloquence held his audience to the closest attention, and most of his hearers were not a little sorry when he concluded.

Now came the presentation of the Crosses of Honor by Mrs. Thomas J. Chenoweth, President of Basil Duke Chapter, U. D. C., to these old veterans—W. M. Allen, Company B, Second Kentucky Cavalry.

KINGS OF LOW PRICES. MERZ BROS. PROPRIETORS BEE HIVE.

Thanks to You First!

Next to our watchfulness in our selection of goods for your approval. The month of May was one of the biggest business months we have had in many years. But you know live merchants constantly endeavor to increase their business. In doing so the advantage to seller and buyer is "mutual." The more goods we sell the smaller the profit we can afford to charge. It is the volume of business that tells in the progressive and aggressive merchandising nowadays. The best of goods not higher than other merchants want for ordinary goods is what the people want, and that is the kind they get from us. We must make this month's business bigger if anything than last, and with that in view you will share in the profit-reducing system explained above. Our Stein-Block, Adler's, Garson, Meyer & Co.'s Clothing, our Stetson Hats, Manhattan Shirts and Hatan and W. L. Douglas Shoes are an aggregation of merchandise that you do not find in another house in the state.

"Be that's a grateful, has no guilt but we."

All other crimes may pass for virtues in him."

THE international incident caused by the kidnapping of Miss ELLEN M. STONE by Bulgarian brigands has been cited. All of the evidence shows conclusively that no responsibility for the abduction is attached to Turkey. Owing to the international concert protecting Bulgaria it would be almost an impossibility to collect any indemnity from the little Government. Therefore, Secretary Hay has decided to drop the affair.

RECENT impression of the anti-Imperialistic Indianapolis News contained this hunk of misinformation— "We may remember, also, that we have expended more than $600,000,000 in our efforts to subjugate the Philippines. It is no answer to say that the sacrifice was necessary to establish peace."

It was not for "subjugation," but for peace based on American sovereignty, that any part of these expenses was incurred; and The Louisville Post insists that the Indianapolis contemporary keep to facts and figures, and be not lured into extravagance by the rhetorical eloquence of Senator HOAR.

Our war in the Philippines for the suppression of the insurrection began in January, 1899, or three years ago. According to The Indianapolis News our expenses in the Philippines have been $200,000,000 annually. A moment's consideration would have shown The News the error of its figures.

The Naval expenses and the Army expenses for this period were as follows:

1899.....	$294,000,000
1900.....	190,000,000
1901.....	265,000,000

Three years.....$649,000,000

This includes all the expenditures for the Army and Navy at home and abroad, only a small portion of which can be charged to our "inhuman war in the Philippines."

This merely illustrates the extravagance of language indulged in by the opponents of Expansion through the whole course of the debate.

River News

The Bonanza goes to Pomeroy tonight.

The Keystone State will be down tonight from Pittsburgh.

The Henry M. Stanley will be down for Cincinnati tonight.

The new Tennessee river packet will be launched at Howard's this week.

The J. H. Davis has 2,000,000 feet of lumber in her tow up for Cincinnati.

The Helen M. Gould from Portsmouth will pass down tonight for Cincinnati.

The Snagboat E. A. Woodruff passed up Monday night on her "teeth" pulling expedition in the Upper Ohio.

If the Lee Line enters the Cincinnati, Louisville and Memphis trade it will revolutionize the business and become a big thing.

The White Collar Line has lost four of their largest boats during the past five years, and not a boat has been built to take the place of any one of them.

It is an acknowledged fact that for the size and length of the Kentucky river, it is the most picturesque and beautiful stream in this country. Every summer the Kentucky river packets carry thousands on round trip excursions.

The low water has shut off all coal shipments at Pittsburgh, but the slight rise allowed many steamboats to enter the harbor. There are almost 20,000,000 bushels of coal ready for shipment in the pools, and a boating stage is confidently expected this week. There is nothing to base it on, except the proverbial June rise, which is looked for every year. Rivermen believe that with a change of moon during the week plenty of rain will fall.

The rivermen at St. Louis were deeply interested last week in a test of speed between the towboats Harry Brown, towing coal from Cairo to St. Louis, and the Exporter. Both left Cairo for St. Louis and the progress of each boat was closely watched by the crew of the other. The Harry Brown was supposed to be the most powerful boat, she having the larger machinery of the compound type and the tow of the two boats were said to be the same in size. The Brown had about ten hours' start, but the Exporter overtook her at Neeley's Landing, and arrived in St. Louis four hours ahead of her.

Children's Day exercises will be held next Sunday evening at the Christian Church.

W. B. Lange has surrendered the Postoffice at Manchester to his successor, Mr. J. A. Schriver.

REVERSAL OF HOWARD VERDICT.

The Case Was Argued Before the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

Frankfort, Ky., June 3.—The case of James W. Howard against the Commonwealth, appealed from the Franklin circuit court, was argued before the court of appeals Tuesday and submitted for decision. Ten days was given for filing of briefs by counsel, and decision will be rendered before June 21, when the spring term closes. The appeal for reversal of the judgment sentencing Howard to life imprisonment for complicity in the Gobel murder was ably presented by Judge Thomas R. Gordon, of Louisville, chief counsel, and was responded to by Attorney T. C. Campbell, of Cincinnati, acting under employment of Gov. Beckham. The courtroom was filled with lawyers from over the state to hear the arguments. Campbell led off, speaking for an hour.

HAS A PATENT ON IT.

To Talk From Train Over Telephone Is Easy, Says Dr. Jones.

Louisville, Ky., June 4.—Experiments conducted by Dr. D. A. Jones, an inventor of this city, from an L. & N. train, are thought to establish satisfactorily that telephones can be operated successfully from a moving train. About two weeks ago Dr. Jones succeeded in calling up the offices of the company from a moving train, and last Saturday a public test was made. Those who were at this end of the line say they received the message plain as if they had been sent from another instrument in the city. Dr. Jones has patented his invention, but has not made the details public.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sized bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail, Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Michael Ryan, son of John Ryan, deceased, Company F, Third Kentucky Cavalry.

It was indeed pathetic, as these old fellows went forward in response to the roll-call—one minus a leg; another, an arm; one, a hopeless cripple in both limbs, drew himself along with the aid of two canes; others, covered with honorable though hidden scars—but all, with silvering head and a face beaming with the consciousness of duty well performed.

On behalf of his fellow Confederate Veterans, Judge Garrett S. Wall received the decorations, thanking the Daughters in a well-chosen speech.

Dr. Motley pronounced the Benediction and the beautiful services came to a close.

Descending to the room below, the large gathering was soon seated at long tables, where everything nice had been provided by the good ladies; and there wasn't an old "Reb" present who wouldn't vote for any one of those ladies for Commissary General of the next Army that he enlists in. There was plenty and to spare; and the ladies may justly be proud of the entire success of the occasion from start to finish.
